PNEUOMA

The Operating System for Human Regulation

Biofeedback games, AI companions, and therapeutic technology for the nervous system

The root issue: A dysregulated nervous system underlies anxiety, depression, PTSD, and addiction. Traditional therapy helps, but can't scale to meet demand.

Our Solution

Technology that trains the nervous system through play, breath, and AI support.

Biofeedback Games

25+ games using breath, voice, and touch as controllers. Play becomes regulation.

AI Companions

Therapeutic AI for bullying, PTSD, addiction, and trauma. Always available, never judgmental.

Classroom Sync

Unique multi-user technology synchronizing breathing across entire classrooms in real-time.

Research Labs

Interactive platforms exploring sound, light, and healing—positioning us as science-first.
